

Appendix 56c to
THE HISTORY OF CHEHAW COUNCIL
More Early Camp Osborn Photos

Swimming Pool in 1948
(Photo by Bill Huggins. Used here by permission.)

Taken in circa 1945 at the gate of Camp Osborn. Troop 1 of Albany is leaving after a weekend campout. Mr. L. W. Rhodes, a troop committeeman, always furnished transportation as he worked for the Coca-Cola plant in Albany.

(Photo by Bill Huggins. Used here by permission.)

Left to right: Scoutmaster Lane Watson, James Calhoun, Charles Townsend, Larry Sailers, Douglas Keel, Billy Heutt, Freddy Adams, Dean Runnels, Bill Huggins, Eddie Ort.

One of the five cabins built in 1947.
This photograph shows members of Troop 21 of Americus
standing in front of the cabin which they occupied while at Camp Osborn.
The photo was taken in the middle 1950s by John Argo
(Photo by John Argo. Used here by permission.)

Another view of a cabin at Camp Osborn.
(Photo by John Argo. Used here by permission.)

Staff Overflow Tent at Camp Osborn.
(Photo from Iva Adams book)

Circa 1956

Scouts in the photo are (left to right): Unknown, John Argo, W. E. Nexsen, Harry L. Wheeler, Unknown, Leroy Starrett, Carl Hancock, Unknown and Gordon Kilgore. Nexsen, Wheeler, and Starrett were professionals on the Chehaw Council Staff. John Argo was from Troop 21, Americus. Carl Hancock and Gordon Kilgore were from Albany.

(Photo from Richard Greene. Used with permission.)

A Camp Osborn Staff T-Shirt (Circa 1955).
(Photo from Richard Greene. Used by permission.)