THE HISTORY OF CHEHAW COUNCIL
1963 Camp Osborn Photos

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR—Hamish Clunkes-Ross, left, of Singapore, and Scout Executive Ronald Tyson, Americus, are shown giving the Boy Scout handshake as the latter welcomes the 20-year-old student to the Chehaw Council staff for the summer. Hamish will head the campercraft section of Camp Osborn, near Albany. He has just completed his freshman year at Georgia Southwestern College in Americus on a Rotary Club scholarship and will enter the University of San Francisco this fall. Hamish wears his native Sea Rover uniform, a division of scouting in Singapore comparable to the American Sea Scout.
